Cayley's Celebration

Big Crowds, Good Sports, and Ideal Weather Combine to Make a Grand Success

Cayley has had her first really big day of sports, and has every reason to feel proud of her ability to put on a celebration; and King George would feel gratified if made aware of the honors done him in this place on his birthday. Nothing occurred to mar the day except one or two of the unavoidable minor accidents that should always be expected. This is the more remarkable when it is considered how many were in Cayley that day. About ninety people came from Claresholm alone, half as many from Parkland, while large numbers drove in from Newton, High River, and all the surrounding district. Every visitor voted the day a success.

All the events were run off almost exactly as per schedule, and the attached list of winners shows that care was needed to have everything given a fair show. As is usual in these parts, where "horse" is the main subject of discussion, the riding and driving events drew all the crowd. There was good variety here, everyone from the gentle merchant man to the wild broncho busting man of the ranches, and from the riding girl to the driving lady, having a chance to show what they could do, and they did it too. This district should be able to carry home the best in every line from any of the neighboring horse shows.

Following is a list of the sports and winners:
Merchants' race—F. Scragg, F. McDonald.
Running long jump—Galbraith 18 ft. 1 in, J. Griffith 10.
Hop, step and jump—S. Seers 37, A. Nablo 36 10.
Standing jump—S. Seers 8 11 1/2, Haines 8 3 1/2.
High jump—S. Seers 5 6, C. Haines 5 5.
Ladies turnout—Mrs. Chaffee.
Bucking contest—McIlvride.
Barrel race—L. Tiffin, M. Caspell.
Men's 100 yd race—C. Phillips, J. Griffith.
Fat man's race—A. D. Fiddler, F. H. Walker.

Three-legged race—Grant & Bell Newton & Caspell.

Sack race—C. Phillips, O. Grant.
Jockey race—Galbraith & Haines Grant & Bell.

Fitting shot, 16 lb-C. Phillips.

Tag of war—T. 28.

Ladies' horse-back race—Mrs. G. Caspell, Miss Cooney.

Walk, trot, run—L. Tiffin, G. Caspell.

Mule race—E. A. Keller, G. Stevens.

Pony race—E. Caspell, C. Mick.

Buggy race—G. Caspell, M. Caspell.

Girls under 10—G. Wickson, E. Keller; 10 to 15—E. Strong, Walker.

Boys under 10—E. Walker, E. Keller; 10 to 15—E. Caspell, B. Brown.

Boys' potato race—R. McIlvride, J. MacKenzie.

Baseball—Cayley 9, Parkland 4.

A. D. Fiddler gave excellent satisfaction as umpire. The Parkland boys play a good game, and will always be popular when they show up in Cayley.

Football—Claresholm 1, Cayley 0.

The ruling of W. Carr was fair and satisfactory. Claresholm boys play excellent combination.

The game was clean throughout and was enjoyed by every one.

The Cayley boys played a good game, but they can learn considerable from the Claresholm boys in combination work.

The Claresholm Band, consisting of fifteen pieces, under the direction of Mr. Renolds, furnished excellent music throughout the day, which was much enjoyed by everyone, and we take much pleasure in recommending this band to anyone in need of their services.

The running and jumping was very interesting and was keenly competed for, and the height and distance cleared shows the contestants were no common athletes.

The merchants' race was won by F. Scragg's horse, ridden by Irving Beisiegel; F. F. McDonald's horse came second, ridden by W. Caragh. This was the best race of the day, and both riders and horses did their best to arrive at the post first. There were six entries in this race. The buggy race drew six entries and a number of the drivers harnessed their horses and were away in a remarkably short time. One horse was willing to take a chance on winning the race although only partly hitched. However, he was soon under control and no damage done.

In the mule race there was only one team entered, whereupon E. A. Keller offered to run a single horse against them, which was agreeable, and he won quite easily. The walk, trot and run, the pony race and barrel race drew quite a number of contestants and were very interesting.

The bucking contest created considerable excitement. The first rider was Mr. Mick, who tried to ride a horse belonging to Gordon Campbell. In his first attempt he was thrown off, the horse ran away, but was soon recaptured and brought back, when Mr. Mick again mounted him and managed to stay on. The next horse brought on the field was one belonging to C. W. Kenna. Harry Robertson mounted him, but he failed to be interesting as a buck.

Next came one belonging to J. O. Houghton. This one proved to be one of the buckers you read about. She was soon saddled and mounted by Scottie, but she showed him he was entirely out of her class by throwing him twice.

Next came Robt. McIlvride, who proved he was no common rider. The halter came off, then the horse decided to jump over some buggies. She did no damage to the first, but the second buggy she jumped into was badly wrecked. Fortunately the occupants escaped injury. In getting clear of this rig the horse landed in some badger holes and she fell, partially on the rider. He was badly shaken up, but much to the pleasure of the whole crowd he was soon on his feet, feeling but little the worse for the fall. The horse in the meantime made her escape and a lad named Baker, who was mounted, attempted to stop the horse, but unfortunately for him his horse fell on him and had to be removed off him. He was knocked unconscious, had his face bruised and his teeth broken, but Dr. Brown was soon in attendance, and we are pleased to say the young man is all right again.

Mr. Eversman, of the Ross Rancho, was judge of this event and he awarded the prize to Robt. McIlvride.

In the evening the Cayley hall was filled to the doors with the audience that turned out to hear the final concert of the Cayley Choral Club. Rev. Mr. Bushfield, who was chairman, remarked truly that this was a good ending of a day of good things. The public pronounced the choruses as good enough for places much larger than Cayley. That is a compliment, not only to the Club, but to the leader, Madame Duggan, who conducted the singers during the past months through the earlier and later stages of that mysterious road that ends in perfect harmony. The local talent that took part in solo and duet work showed both natural ability and careful training; while the assistance given by Madame Duggan, Misses Evans and Duggan, and Mr. Duggan, was such that all Cayley will ever

J. S. Elves began his duties as census enumerator for this district on Friday last.

L. Jakes, of Sloan & Jakes, is down at Medicine Hat on real estate business.

The town council held their regular meeting on Monday evening of last week. The tax rate for 1911 was set at 10 mills.

Elves Bros. have received word from Vancouver that their brother was improving nicely from his street car accident.

The greatest harvest in the history of Alberta is looked for, and there is ample to support the vision.

Following the rains of the preceding two weeks we are having warm weather this week, which is bringing crops up at a rapid rate.

The Departmental examinations for Standards V. and VI. will be held this year on June 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th.

There will be a service at the Coleraine school at 3 p.m. and at Misquit Creek school at 7.30 p.m. An invitation is extended to all.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Caspell and Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Widdup, Misses Lobban, Caspell, Stirling; Messrs. Jack Cohen, L. R. Caspell and Alex. Nablo attended farewell service of Rev. E. Bishop at Nanton last Sunday.

The Methodist conference left the pastorate of Nanton church vacant, and the stationing committee will visit the congregation to consult regarding the proposed union with the Presbyterians.

Cayley still maintains her reputation as one of the largest shipping points in Alberta of prime beef cattle. Thirteen carloads of grain were also shipped during the week ending May 20th.

This fall when the money is plentiful everyone will be cheering, and many will forget that there was a dry year. Great thing this power to forget the disagreeable and to be joyful over that which is bright.

Mr. Schooler, one of the teachers in the Methodist Sunday school, resigned the class and expects to leave for his old home in Iowa. He was very popular here and will be much missed by his friends.

The ladies' guild of the Presbyterian church proved a friend indeed to all the visitors last Saturday, supplying over three hundred meals during the day. The guild will hold its regular monthly meeting on Saturday afternoon, the 10th.

Mr. Smilie, one of the students in charge of the High River Forks mission field of the Presbyterian church, passed through Cayley on Saturday morning. He comes almost direct from Toronto University, where he was studying the winter.

Rev. and Mrs. F. Bushfield attended the Methodist conference at Calgary. Mr. Bushfield has been transferred to Red Willow, Alberta, and Rev. Mann has been stationed here. Mr. Bushfield leaves for his new appointment in about one week.

There will be the usual services in the Presbyterian hall on Sunday, 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. Bible school at 10.15, the subject being "Hezekiah's Great Passover," 2 Chron. 30, xii-xvii. The sermon subjects will be, in the morning, "The Working Christ," and in the evening, "Strength, How Obtained."

Dr. A. O. Brown was a Calgary visitor on Monday.

J. A. and G. W. Wickens were Brant visitors Monday and Tuesday of this week.

J. W. Keith of the Dominion Life Assurance Co. was in town on business.

The Misses Herard and Youse and Mrs. Beasley of Nanton were the guests of Miss E. Scragg on sports day.

Rev. E. J. Hodgins, B.A., of Vermillion, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Herbert George, on Wednesday last.

The Marj's throughout the Empire have contributed $60,000 to the Queen's coronation gift. The donors range from beggar maids to duchesses, and the donations from half pennies to pounds.

If the C. P. R. shops should be located at Bassano, there will be an awful lot of people stung on Calgary and Medicine Hat real estate. Wherever they go some are going to have some city lots to save to wheat.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Latham was baptised on Sunday by the Rev. Mr. Henchey Anglican rector of Nanton, who holds two services here a month. After which tea was served to about twelve guests, everything being prepared in honor of the occasion. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carr was also baptised.

The football game played on Wednesday evening between Cayley and High River on the lacrosse grounds at High River provided first-class entertainment to about one hundred spectators. Of course it was not professional football, but on the other hand we believe it was about as interesting to the spectators. The Cayley team proved their superiority throughout, and when play ceased the score read 3 to 1 in their favor. High River kickers, in justice to themselves, should have practice games before playing with outside teams. Cayley team was escorted to the grounds by Alex. Durham, who played many selections on his bagpipes, and thus encouraged his home team to win the game.

Address and Presentation

The bible class of the Methodist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wickens, on Friday evening and presented their teacher, Mr. T. J. Schooler, with an address and tie-pin before his departure on an extended visit to his home in Iowa. Mrs. (Rev) Bushfield read the address, and Miss Florence Anderson, sec. of the school, presented the gift. Mr. Schooler making a very suitable reply. After which a social time was spent and music furnished by the members present, followed by dainty refreshments. The following was the address:

To M. T. J. Schooler,
We, the members of your bible class, desire to express our appreciation of your services as teacher during the past year, and as you are now about to leave for your home, to join your loved ones, we sincerely trust you will have a safe and pleasant journey, and in due time return to take your place among us and resume your class as leader and teacher. We now ask you to accept this pin as a slight token of our appreciation, and should circumstances prevent your returning to us, we wish you a long and prosperous life wherever your future lot may be cast in this world, and all the blessings that can be bestowed in the hereafter.

Signed on behalf of bible class
G. W. Wickens,
John Bradley, Supt.

Cayley As She Is.

There's a demonstration daily of something good in Cayley. At Mac's there's Mr. Grant. With head perched on aslant. At the hardware there's Elves. We know better than our selves. Then next is Anderson, Than whom there's no grander son. Then don't leave out Bushfield. With the scars of war healed. At the corner is Mr. Schwoob. The jolliest on the globe. Then the musical Wickens. Who furnishes good pickins. Backed up by J. L. Sloane. Who's afraid to live alone. And next to Mr. Harris. To rhyme with Mr. Ferris. Then we've Mr. Cohen. Who keeps the wires agoing. And down to Mr. Bradley. Whom we'd miss so sadly. And stop with Dr. Brown. Who's sure to wear a crown. Don't pass up Mr. Beaton. Whom we owe for all we've eaten. At next corner is the bank. For credit we must thank. The sunny Mr. Lyall. And meet him with a smile. Over now to Sloan & Jakes. Where real estate awaits. Goes up on a boom. For settlers hunting room. Oh, here is Harry Bowen. Who keeps mustache agrowin' Ty tickle the lips of misses. Who are always fresh for kisses. Oh, my! and here's Kwong Lung. With morals for your tongue. And here's genial Lindsay Caspell. Striving hard to grasp all. He's in with Mr. Nablo. In merchandise to dabble O. We go now to Fred Scragg's. Who courts while business drags. We all stand up for Kenna. For Cayley has hotels no many. Three cheers now for Sandy Durham With bagpipes new to cheer 'em. On to stop with Miss Hill. Don't forget to pay your bill. The next on whom we'll call. Will try to make a Hill a Hall. Then rock to Mr. Slater. Who is no second rate. Hurrah for old Joe Hallett. He has a ticket for this ballet. If you patronize Zee Lacs. Likewise to carpet your tower. You must visit Daddy Bower. Swing around as you play them. And you'll see Charley Latham. And homesteading the rocks. Good bye to Mr. Knox.

You lovers who wouldn't be beaten, Go with her to Rev. Beaton. If a scrapper you be, Look out for our J. P. You must pay your P.O. rental. So come on to see Miss Zental. She works with Mr. Newton. He is a regular cute one. We only need a Hobson To rhyme with Mr. Robertson. We'll wind up with Barnes. The author of all these yarns.

Calgary Exhibition

$29,000 are offered in prizes and purchased at the forthcoming Calgary Industrial Exhibition to be held at Calgary June 30th to July 7th, and in addition to this, freight transportation is paid by the Exhibition Co. on all exhibits originating in Alberta. In addition to a splendid display of live stock and industrial exhibits, the best program of attractions ever seen in Canada west of Toronto has been provided, and it is expected that fully one hundred thousand visitors will attend the exhibition. Almost everyone will be interested in the daily flights of Strobels' Aeroplane, and the demonstrations of the Mono-Rail Car, to say nothing of the fireworks, music and other attractions which are the best that money can secure. Prize lists can be had on application to the manager, E. L. Richardson, Victoria Park, Calgary, and entries close on June 15th.
